

Open Call!

OUTDOOR YARN BOMBING EXHIBIT & JUDGED COMPETITION

Live Performance!

Join in the fun, as visitors to the festival and yarn-bombing exhibit are treated to a musical and spoken word performance by members of the Memorial High School theater department. Celebrate the fiber arts through song and poetry, along with the beauty of the artists' creations! Check our website for times and specific listings at www.cvmuseum.com

DRESS THE TREES IN OUR COURTYARD:

All area fiber artists and enthusiasts are invited to take part in the Chippewa Valley Museum's new outdoor public display in conjunction with our annual Fiber Arts Festival held on Saturday, February 1, 2014. Participants are asked to bring in pieces on an individual or group basis to be used as part of a temporary installation. Contributors may also enter their work for judged competition with guest judge and professional artist Susan Sveda-Uncapher. Prizes will be awarded to the top three entrants meeting the criteria for the formal qualities of color, design, and craftsmanship. Please see details below.

How To Participate

Sign Up Now! Contact Karen Jacobson at 715-834-7871 or k.jacobson@cvmuseum.com to register, or for more information.

Pieces may be brought to the museum in advance, or during installation on Friday, Jan. 31, from 1- 5 pm.
